"STANDBY AND SUMMIT" RESOLUTION

THE SECURITY COUNCIL:

Having urgently reviewed the grave threat to the peace by continuation and exacerbation of the Cuban question,

1. Calls for an immediate standstill of all military activity in Cuba; and in particular missile development, reinforcement, and construction of foreign bases in Cuba;
2. Calls for termination of the measures of quarantine directed against military shipments to Cuba immediately upon compliance with the standstill on reinforcement and construction of foreign bases in Cuba;
3. Instructs the Acting Secretary General to despatch immediately a United Nations observer corps to Cuba to assure and report on compliance with paragraphs 1 and 2 of this resolution;
4. Urgently recommends that the United States of America and the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics confer promptly at heads of government level on steps to be taken forthwith to reduce tensions in the area of Cuba and other problems in the control of nuclear weapons; and report thereon to the Security Council;
5. Authorizes the Acting Secretary General to offer his good offices for these purposes, and to place in Cuba an effective United Nations presence to see to the carrying out of this resolution.
